Section	8000 OPERATIONS
Title	MORNING EXERCISES
Code	8800.01
Status	Active
Adopted	September 15, 2020

The morning exercises of Edison School of the Arts may be conducted as an aid in establishing an atmosphere conducive to study, to further teacher-student rapport, and to influence students to begin their day's work with purpose. The exercises may include such activities as the singing of patriotic songs, giving the pledge of allegiance, listening to good music, and the reading or reciting of poetry or prose designed to build ethical character or to promote appreciation of our cultural and social heritage.
