

Equal Educational Opportunity Policy

The Board of Trustees requires equal educational opportunity for all students enrolled in the educational programs of the school, including, but not limited to, course offerings, athletic programs, guidance and counseling, and tests and procedures, regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, race, color, creed, religion, national origin, social or economic status, parenthood, marital status, or disability. Similarly, students shall respect the rights of other students to receive an education in an atmosphere that is conducive to learning and free from discriminatory practices. No student, therefore, shall have the right to abridge another student's rights. Young Scholars complies with all Federal Title IX requirements related to the prevention of discrimination on the basis of sex. Please refer to Title IX resources on our website www.phillyscholars.org/publicnotices/.
