

Intellectual Property

All Material (defined as writings, works of authorship, technology, inventions, discoveries, ideas and other work product of any nature whatsoever) and other Intellectual Property Rights (defined as all trade secrets, copyrights, trademarks, patents and other intellectual property recognized by the laws of any jurisdiction) written, created or developed by any employee:

- a) through the use of Young Scholars Charter School resources or facilities, or
- b) supported by funds administered by Young Scholars Charter School during the course of employment will be and remain the sole property of Young Scholars CS.