Remediation Plan

We will offer additional small-group targeted remediation to help close specific math skill gaps for our middle school students. Middle school students currently not on grade level who have not made growth since the beginning of the year assessment qualify for this additional support. The first set of skills to be addressed are algebraic thinking and numbers and operations.

Discipline Trends

As we increase Restorative Practices school-wide. Students are starting to understand that it is ok to make mistakes. Students are learning from their mistakes and making positive decisions each day. Teachers focus on meeting each student where they are and ensuring that they feel loved, cared for, and valued. Teachers' approach to discipline has become more proactive vs reactive through the use of Restorative practices.

There is a decrease in Office Referrals as teachers implement classroom consequences for student misbehavior that are in line with Professional development implemented throughout the school year.
