Commented [1]: The Articles of Incorporation for the Corporation indicate that its corporate purpose is, "to develop after school programs for kids, charter schools, and digital content development of k12". We recommend the use of the corporate purpose language included in the draft Bylaws as the current corporate purpose does not clearly indicate that the corporation will operate a charter school. If the language in the draft Bylaws is adopted the Articles of Incorporation should also be revised to reflect the same corporate purpose.

Commented [2R1]: Ok, we will revise the Articles to reflect this language. What is the process to revise the articles of incorporation?
