We have worked with our attorney to meet all of the new federal requirements as well as the related California law requirements so that we have one comprehensive policy for sex-based discrimination. In addition we have updated our language on our website to reflect the most current changes as well as in our handbooks to align with the new regulations. We have have trained our staff and prepared to integrate lessons for our students at the appropriate age level in our SEL lessons. We have included the information in our annual updates for our families and will be sure to include more information during our parent education during the year.
