Policy Statement on Consensual Relationships

Consensual romantic or sexual relationships between supervisors and employees and between faculty or staff and students are potentially exploitative and must be avoided. They raise serious concerns about the validity of the consent, conflicts of interest, and unfair treatment of others.

The BCS’s anti-nepotism policy precludes individuals from evaluating the work performance of others with whom they have intimate familial or personal relationships, or from making hiring, salary, or similar financial decisions concerning such persons. The same principles apply to supervisor-employee relationship in the context of work or academic evaluation.

Violations of the Consensual Relationship Policy, if proved, will result in the imposition of corrective actions and/or disciplinary sanctions, up to and including dismissal from BCS’s employ.

The provisions of this policy shall be applicable prospectively only, with reference to appointments made after the adoption date of the policy.
