IV. Academic Excellence

A. Intersession Update - Fall 2016 Change Makers

Devin provided an update on Intersession. All students were placed in one of their top three choices. In the Upper School, there was strong interest in student designed internships and student designed independent study. Devin shared that a focus for EBIA is partner development. Some opportunities for improvement next year are more partnerships with local organizations and better communication of the skillset the students can offer.

See board materials for more details.

B. Intersession Professional Development Plan

Teachers will participate in a week of Professional Development during Intersession. Schedule posted in Board Materials.

C. 1st Trimester Classroom Snapshots

A priority is sharing success stories and photos from EBIA more broadly. Classroom Snapshots are shared on social media, with overviews of student work at different grade levels. Follow EBIA on Twitter at @EastBayIA.

D. IEP/ELL 2016-2017 Population and IEP Support Services

Devin presented an IEP and ELL Overview. Both campuses have a focus on inclusion and push-in services. See board materials for more details.
