F. Committee Objective, Goals and Milestones Presentation

Facilities Committee Discussion -

- Main goal: evaluate and determine CASA's short and long-term facility needs. Create metrics and guidelines that become the foundation for the decision making and planning process for the future growth of CASA. This includes real estate market research, bonding requirements, and lease versus buy decisions
- Short term goals: (1) list out possible facility needs over the next 1-3 years; (2) research short-term facility options based on the needs determined; (3) work with finance committee when reviewing facility options to minimize risk.
- Long term goals: (1) list out possible facility needs over the next 3-10 years; (2) research long-term facility options based on the needs determined; (3) work with finance committee when reviewing facility options to minimize risk (research bond and financing options); (4) evaluate new construction versus existing building.
- Milestones (focus on short term): initial research on bond process, get facilities' need requirements (prepare checklist with deal breakers); letter of intent.
- Facilities Meetings - 3rd Tuesday of each month at noon.

Fundraising / Marketing Committee Discussion -

- Main goals: (1) create marketing strategies to make CASA a household name for students, families, investors and other stakeholders; (2) create strategies to fund CASA's short-term and long-term financial cash flow needs.
- Objectives: (1) Annual Event, (2) Growth Funds, Grants and Bonds, (3) Marketing Strategies for recruitment
- Marketing Goals: (1) Social Media presence, (2) developing the brand, (3) SEO / Google Ad words, etc., (3) marketing to investors and commercial partnerships.
- Milestone: Weekly annual event meetings; reach outside the Board to create a marketing committee with people with marketing expertise.
