B. Call the Meeting to Order

M. Tucker called a meeting of the board of trustees of CASA ACADEMY to order on Saturday Oct 24, 2020 at 9:09 AM.

II. Strategic Planning

A. Strategic Meeting Overview

Mr. Tucker gave an overview of the strategic meeting, the process, and goals that the Board can support in connection with CASA's 2025 vision.

B. CASA's Mission and Perspective

Ms. Clayton gave a presentation on CASA's mission, recapping the history of the school and goals moving forward. A Pre-K through 8th grade school will provide a continuum for CASA scholars in their formative years and set them up for success beyond CASA. A welcoming facility and loving, long-term teachers are valuable and important to CASA. Slow growth (i.e. one grade level per year) of CASA will allow us to do things right. The CASA 2025 vision is that CASA will serve Pre-K through 8th grade by 2025.

Ms. Clayton gave an overview of the strategic goals of the 2019-2020 school year, which focused on (1) facilities and finance objectives and (2) marketing and fundraising objectives; and the progress towards those goals.

C. Brain Storming of ideas

Mr. Tucker led a discussion regarding the Board's opportunities to support CASA over the next 5 years.

D. Brown arrived.

D. Break

The Board took a 10 minute break.

E. Finalization of Directives and Priorities

The Board discussed the ideas from the brainstorm and narrowed it down to the top 4 priorities. The Board discussed having each committee create/organize key performance indicators for that committee and utilize those KPIs in updates to the Board. The Board discussed creative fundraising and increasing fundraising goals and how to meet those goals.

F. Group Breakout

The Board split up into two groups to discuss: (1) Pre-K program and (2) more locations.

G. Group Presentations

The Board reconvened to discuss what was brainstormed in the breakout groups regarding adding a pre-k program and more locations.

H. Closing Comments
