II. HOS Report and School Update

A. Update on what is happening at the school right now

- Working on end of year activities in accordance with current (shifting) DC Health protocols
- Faculty very glad to be back in person; have just been asked to write reflections on this past school year
- Anticipating a large turnout for summer school, which will offer a combination of virtual and hybrid classes; plan to use summer school to slowly evolve into "back to normal" protocols for fall
- Planning to take down outdoor classrooms after end of regular school year; no vandalism or theft so far but will not use tents for summer school

B. Q&A on written HOS report

No questions from the Board

III. Charter Renewal

A. Revised Bylaws

In consultation with counsel at PCSB, The Shanahan Firm modified the by-law language to resolve the concern raised earlier about the role of the Board Secretary.

C. Wilkinson made a motion to Approve the revised By-Laws.

T. Morgan seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

IV. Internal Controls

A. Sector issues/How we are managing internal controls

- Our protocols both internally and with EdOps carry several redundancies and checks to avoid mismanagement of funds; those procedures are reviewed regularly
- Audit and Finance Committees will be working with Yinnie on identifying an outside consultant to do a risk assessment for both internal controls and cyber-risks; plan to propose a multi-year plan when finished
- Several Board Members expressed support for this work

V. Finance

A. March financials

- Yinnie reviewed the monthly financial report in detail and we are comfortably compliant with all metrics

- Management would like to disburse some available funds as a bonus to all faculty and staff, and for summer PD grants (as has been done in the past); If approved, Board to announce at next Faculty meeting

B. Caldwell made a motion to Approve the Faculty Appreciation Bonus (FAB).

C. Wilkinson seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

B. FY21-22 budget

- Yinnie presented the FY21-22 budget, making specific note of the DSCR (debt service coverage ratio) in the context of proposed expenses to start-up Latin B.
- Projections show us staying within the desired DSCR of 1.2, especially if we can slightly shift the timing of a few expenses across the year. Finance team will be monitoring this metric closely.
- Yinnie also provided comparisons with prior years and conservative estimates based on enrollment, local and federal funding, and anticipated Latin B hiring.

C. Wilkinson made a motion to Approve the Budget.

K. Merritt seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

VI. Governance

A. Nomination of officers for SY21-22

Chris opened the floor for nominations for officers which generated the following slate:

Tim to continue for one more year as Treasurer

Caitlin to continue as Secretary

Chris to continue as Chair

Ken nominated as Vice-Chairman

Full Board to vote on this slate next month

B. Other governance matters

- Board is reviewing the report from Matt Taylor and may want to re-engage him for a check-in at some future point
- Reviewing existing partnerships to be sure we're getting full value from those organizations
- Board committees working on Head of School evaluation, recruiting to fill vacant Board positions/on-boarding of new members, and review of Strategic Plan

VII. Growth Dashboard

A. Leadership/Talent pipeline

Brief report in the interest of time: continuing to interview candidates for leadership roles and making good progress. Will report more fully at future meetings.

B. Fundraising

Brief report in the interest of time is that the team is making good progress; Barry expects some greater momentum once we have a building. The committee is digging further into the prospects list but would welcome suggestions for additional prospects from any board member
