II. Leadership Report

A. Executive Overview

Peter Anderson began his report by listing upcoming events. He then discussed how Washington Latin has evolved as a "growing idea." He talked about shifts in the org chart with the new roles being filled with Caroline Gifford (Chief of Schools) and Diana Smith (Chief of Classical Education). And he introduced the new Latin Support Team that operates at the LEA level.

B. Cooper Campus Update

Khashiffa Roberts talked about the orientation and onboarding of the founding staff of the Anna Julia Cooper Campus and the enrollment of the first cohort of students. She discussed the recently concluded summer enrichment program.

C. 2nd Street Update

Jimmy Kelly talked about what it means to work in the "new paradigm." He discussed that his senior team remains intact from the previous year and two positions have been added: Assistant Principal for School Life and Director of Restorative Justice. He then talked about ongoing hiring challenges, especially with regards to special education.

D. The Latin Way

Diana Smith, the new Chief of Classical Education provided an overview of the newly codified, "Latin Way," founded on the four principles of "Fall in love with enduring ideas," "Seek the conversation," "Trust courageously," and "Serve the Common Good."

III. Financial Update

A. May Financials

Peter Anderson reviewed the financials through the end of May 2022. He discussed that the end of year books have not yet closed and that the audit will begin in September. Net Income is forecasted to be significantly above the $268k budgeted net Income.
