II. LEA Report

A. Quick Update from 2nd Street

James Kelly mentioned that there are 3 new appointments at 2nd St. November is the start of the second quarter and so far, 2nd St has established a strong classroom culture.

There is ongoing concern about safety issues in the neighborhood.

B. Quick Update from Anna Julia Cooper Campus

Spirit week at AJC was a success.

There are still a few positions open at AJC. Khashiffa Roberts is hopeful that these will be filled soon.

4301 Harewood Rd NE plans and renderings were shared with families during the AJC Cooper Cafe on Oct 10 Tue. The AJC community is excited and eagerly await more updates.

C. Executive Report

Peter Anderson highlighted the traffic safety concerns at AJC. The congestion is impacting AJC pick up and drop off.

Mr. Anderson also reminded the board that a charter amendment application would be submitted in January to the DC PCSB requesting approval in the change of the site location of the Anna Julia Cooper Campus from 711 Edgewood St., NE to 4301 Harewood Rd., NE (the site of the former Kirov Academy Ballet School), effective as of August, 2025 for the 2025-2026 school year. Pending approval, the 4301 Harewood Rd, NE property will become the permanent home for Washington Latin's second facility. The board previously voted to acquire this site as the future home for the Anna Julia Cooper Campus.

III. Governance

A. Board prospects

Lisa Rucker gave an update about board prospects. There are 5 candidates under consideration. They are referrals from the board and/or from the parent community. It was suggested that perhaps new prospects can join committees before joining the board.

Lisa Rucker is working on a board calendar and will share it with the board when it is ready.

B. Strategic Plan

Peter Anderson introduced Myra Brooks, who presented the vision of the strategic plan and facilitated an in depth discussion among the board members about the board's individual and collective role(s) in governing The Latin Way.

The progress/problems/plans of the 4 priorities, and the leadership lessons learned during the strategic planning process, were talked about.

- priority #1 - Challenge all learners to grow
- priority #2 - Diversity & Integration
- priority #3 - Human Flourishing

- priority #4 - Sustainability

Ken Merritt asked the board to consider/comment how they are feeling about the strategic plan and if they are feeling a sense of ownership of that plan.

Myra Brooks recommended the following board commitments.

- alignment
- oversight
- two way communication

IV. Quick Committee Updates

A. Finance Committee

Geovanna Izurieta shared the September 2023 financials, and elaborated on the Annotated Financials.

The following Key Performance Indicators (KPI) are trending positive.

- days of cash
- gross margin
- grants invoiced
- DSCR (Debt Service Coverage Ratio)

Geovanna Izurieta requested the board to vote on the DRAFT financial statement audit, which does not include a management control letter.

B. Caldwell made a motion to approve the DRAFT financial statement audit.

C. McFadgion seconded the motion.

This is a DRAFT and any significant discrepancies should be reported to the board. The motion to approve the DRAFT financial statement audit is subject to the review by the Audit Committee of the FINAL financial statement audit including the management control letter.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.
