III. The Latin Way Moment

A. Reflecting on The Latin Way in action in SY24-25

Several board members shared their most memorable "The Latin Way" experiences.

IV. LEA Report

A.

School Report from AJC Campus

Khashiffa Roberts reported that students generally took testing more seriously this year, and highlighted that the 6th grade did very well for MAP Math.

The leadership team has great synergy and everybody is looking forward to the new HAREWOOD RD facility.

B. School Report from 2nd St. Campus

The graduation rate is 100% for the Class of 2025 (for students who were on campus with us this year). James Kelly also mentioned that the absence of electronics during the school day this year has been positively received. So far, the new faculty and the new leaders of the school have assimilated well at 2nd St.

Anna Jesseman is stepping down from the board and returning to Latin as Director of Student Support (LEA) for SY25/26. The transition from the board will occur over the next few months.

C. Executive Report

Peter Anderson gave a LEA report highlighting the achievements of both campuses.

There will be a new Director of Development and Alumni Relations starting next month. The position has been vacant since November.

There was a discussion of the FY25, FY26 and FY27 DC budgets.

The SBOE (State Board Of Education) is considering a resolution that LEAs have to provide funding for a minimum of two full time paid athletic positions.

There is an item on the risk monitoring dashboard that the board would like to discuss in executive session.

Peter Anderson informed the board that WLPCS received a FOIA (Freedom Of Information Act) request.

V. Facilities Update

A. Quick facilities update

The HAREWOOD RD facility is scheduled to be ready for move in before the end of Jul. The ribbon cutting event will be on Oct 31 Fri.

Signage for the HAREWOOD RD facility and the existing WLPCS motto were discussed.

The board was asked to consider a change to the WLPCS motto. A suggestion was the Cicero quote "non nobis solum nati sumus" instead of the current "discite servaturi". The board was open to the idea. They voted to enable the WLPCS leadership team to discuss and deliberate a change to the WLPCS motto - and to enact the new motto, if there is consensus.

J. Osgood made a motion to enable the WLPCS leadership team to discuss and deliberate a change to the WLPCS motto - and to enact the new motto, if there is consensus.

E. Paisner seconded the motion.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.
