IV. Discussion Items

A. Amendment of the lease with Regency Charter Property, LLC

- Mr. Dmitriy reviewed with the board the Amendment that needs to take place where insurance will be directly under GOCA instead of the leasing company. Instead of reimbursing the Lender for the insurance costs, GOCA will now directly pay for the coverage to the insurance company.
- The building are still currently under the leasing company but expected Closing is scheduled for December 16th, 2020. The new insurance will be effective on 12/9/2020.
- The attorney has reviewed all documents regarding the change and has recommended to approve the changes.
- Board members agree that the changes are good.

B. Arts School Application

- Mr. Soroka presented the intent to submit an application to DCPS to open up an Art K-8 School for Fall 2022.
- The application will be submitted by the end of December, and currently are working with the community to collect support signatures.
- A team has been created to complete the proposal to DCPS.
- Enrollment is predicted to begin from K-5 after approval, and additional grade level per year.
- Art Curriculum will include Ballet, Art, Dance, Drama, Music. The extra resources depend on parent and student interest.
- Professional Development will be continued to be provided to all Teachers.

C. Intent to Commit: New Arts School : 2022

- Mrs Korchuk presented that amount of funds that need to be assured for the Art 2022 School.
- The board is being asked to commit $600,000 for the opening of the new Art School.
- The board agrees to have the funds available to ensure a successful opening of the new school.

D. Statement of Assurances
