IV. Discussion Items

A. Explore Financing of Current Loans

- Melissa Gross-Arnold, GOCA Attorney, spoke on the previous 2.2 Million loan that was taken in our corporate loan previously with Sunflower Bank. With the new refinance, 3.3 will be borrowed. The refinance will allow for 6 more classrooms to be built, Turf will be added to the current field, gymnasium will be built, and updates to all other current fields. New Payment will be $120,000 a year with a fixed rate.

- The option with the new finance is to lock in the current rate for 35 years. Loan can be refinanced in 8 years.
- Cost of Issuance will be 1 Million.
- $40,000 a year of savings will occur without the cost of the gym addition.
- Blended Current rate: 4.45 %
- New Loan Rate (with Gym): 4.0 %
- School is expected to receive Additional funding thru half-cent (Capital Outlay).

B. Formation of LLC: GOCA Properties, LLC

- Melissa Gross-Arnold, GOCA Attorney, presented the current option for GOCA to form an LLC under the name of GOCA Properties, LLC.
- Funds can be re-classified once they are attained by the LLC.
- GOCA Properties, LLC will solely be controlled by the current GOCA Board
- The current 2 buildings that GOCA Inc. owns will be transferred to GOCA LLC.
- GOCA Properties, LLC will be combined with current GOCA Inc. tax exemption.
- All financial statements will be consolidated for all of GOCA schools under the GOCA Properties, LLC.
- Board agrees that the formation of the LLC will be the most effective structure for the growth of GOCA.

C. Designate Board Member to serve as Representative for Bond Working Group

- Melissa Grow-Arnold recommended for member from the board to be a consultant for the LLC.
- The board will nominate which board member will be the representative on the LLC.

D. Reimbursement Resolution

- Melissa Grow-Arnold explained that a reimbursement resolution is required by the IRS.
- The Resolution allows the LLC to be reimbursed for expenditures out of the bond proceeds.
- The resolution gives the maximum amount of reimbursement.

E. Approval of Financial Advisory Services Agreement with Building Hope Services

- Melissa Grow-Arnold explained that the LLC is required to have a Financial Advisor. -
- The Board agrees to work with Mr. Richard Moreno and his firm, Building Hope Services.
- Current Yearly Fee is $70K.

- Melissa Grow-Arnold, presented an investment broker to help market the bonds for the GOCA Buildings, LLC.

G. GOCA Ditch Sale LOI

- Mr. Taylor Smith, spoke on the intent to purchase land that is on the corner lot of the Grizzly Campus parking lot.
- Land cannot be used for GOCA purchase because land is classified as wasteland.
- Purchase amount will be $300,000 and funds can be used for GOCA Expansion.
- Due to current construction of Lenard housing in the adjacent property, city will allow for additional construction on the wasteland for the new purchaser.

H. Student Mid-Year Data & Intervention Plans

- David Soroka, K8 Principal presented the current Mid-Year Data and intervention plans for the rest of the school year.
 - Window 1, Tier 3 was at 40%
 - Current date of growth in the 3 tiers was reviewed and explained by the K8 Principal.
 - Window 1 to 2, tier 1 did not grow significantly.
 - Current Trajectory, estimates that the final school grade will be a low C or High D.
 - The outlier that is affecting the current test scores, is the students that are virtual students. The students that returned back to the in-class setting showed lower test score data.
 - Challenges that are affecting Data: Large number of ESOL, New Campus, New Learning Modality (Online Education), and COVID Restrictions.
 - The school put the most effective teacher to teach online and put alot of resources with assisting with online learning.
- Next Steps: Preparation for Testing
- All Tier 3 Tear students received additional interventions. Small group, instruction plans, and target groups were created to assist with low scoring students.
 - Additional PD's for teachers for ESE/ESOL Support Services.
 - FSA Practice Tests
 - GOCA

I. CSP Grant Application: Intercoastal Location

- Mr. Soroka presented the current application to for the CSP Grant for the Intercoastal Location.
- The grant will help with the opening of the new Intercoastal Campus.
- The application has already been submitted. The board agrees that it is in the best interest of GOCA.
- Grant is up to $900k.

J. Teacher Salary Increase Minimum Base: 2020-2021

- Ms. Vitalina, HR Director, suggested to increase the current minimum base salary to teacher from $43,300 to $43,400. The state granted the school funds to increase teacher salary and to use up all of the allocated funds, the current base salary needs to be increased.

- The board agrees that the base salary should be increased for the duration of this current school year.
