III. Academic Excellence

A. Presentation and Updates

Presentation of strategic goals for the academic program, including guidance provided to teachers and academic data points. Discussion questions related to staff retention and academic clarifications.

IV. Finance and Facilities

A. Committee presentation

Goal to break-even with student enrollment unaided by philanthropic support. Currently have a shortfall in enrollment resulting in a loss. Cuts in expenses have been identified without sacrificing academic program or strategic priorities. Discussion included student retention and recruitment. Monitoring days of cash-on-hand remains high priority.

Ricardo Chapa made a motion to approve the budget as revised.

Maria Miller seconded the motion.

- Concerns were raised about student recruitment and retention and this item will be revisited in more depth in next board meeting.
- Potentially have 3 scenarios for future budgets. Requesting data about the 47 not filled.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.
