

Sarah Wells

serrawells@gmail.com

(530) 321-6477

Objective

To introduce myself to the Board of Lakeview Charter

Experience

2000-2015 Sole owner and creator of the business, Sacred Beginnings. Provided services and support for pregnancy, birth and early parenting. Duties included: teaching birth preparation classes and pre/postnatal yoga, massage and doula services, community outreach and marketing.

2014-2019 Served on a team responsible for creating the annual weekend long gathering for women and children in Butte County, Weaving Women's Wisdom. Duties included: collaboration with 12 other team members, outreach and planning, organizing site specific needs, communication and problem solving throughout event.

2000-2019 Seasonal work in SE Alaska for 9 (not consecutive) seasons. In this role, I was responsible for operating a 28 passenger tourist bus and sharing history and information with guests.

2010-present Motherhood. So you know, I do EVERYTHING!

Education

1997 BA-English Literature, Willamette University, Salem, OR

2008 California Teaching Credential special ed program, CSU Chico

2009 Massage Therapist training, Heartwood Massage, Garberville, CA

About Serra

Most folx know me as Serra, though I've never legally changed the spelling. I am currently; mom first, gardener and partner 2nd, fierce advocate for equity and social justice, community organizer, massage practioner, lover of learning, growth, community and communicating! I am seeking to be part of the board of Lakeview Charter to learn and to add my voice to those that care about the school and the future of kids in general.