We had our school lottery this month and have had 45 students who have accepted seats and begun the enrollment process so far! We are going to have to continue efforts around kindergarten enrollment but are looking strong across all other grade levels. We have also been busy recruiting new staff for next school year and are still in the process of trying to finalize our staffing plan. We head into our spring break next week and then will return to finish the last 7 weeks of the school year off strong!
