JH Overview of the budget and comments from finance committee.

- Projected enrollment is 384.
- Reviewed a breakdown of funds that come from enrollment (in board packet)
- Break down of basic grant and complexity grant funding which is $8,654 per pupil.
- Reviewed total per pupil funds and total expenses per student with a surplus of approximately $1,774 per student to have cushion and ability to strategically shift as needed.
- Estimated total revenue is $6.9M
- Staff will increase from 46 to 52
- Budget is conservative until we get final numbers.
- Next steps: vote on budget today, FY23 close out, finance policy updates, FY24 reprojections in Q2.

Questions/Discussion:

- KK: discussed best use of surplus funds, consulting on financial policies and processes in the fall, JH made updates to the budget based on finance committee feedback. including the addition of the security guard.
- BB: appreciate detail and break downs.
- NF: in the future see more comparison from previous/current FY and future year.
 - JH: noted and will have more details next time.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

IV. Committee Updates

A. Academic Excellence

- Missing ELA numbers but have about 80% of the math scores. Academic committee will meet once we have data and will report out to the board after.

B. Finance & Development

C. Governance

- Recruitment update: thanks to volunteers MS, MW, NF.
- Get on Board June 27th at Newfields
- June 6th Board retreat at Coburn place
- OEI submissions by June 30th
 - ED review
 - Board evaluation
 - School assurance forms
- OEI Submission July 1st
 - New board member list
 - Updated bylaws
- DEI section:
 - Reflection question: what do you need from every person in this room to feel supported, open, brave, productive, and trusting, so that we can do our best work towards serving our students well.
 - Reflections shared included looking forward to time at our retreat to build relationships outside of business. A need for more feedback individually. A desire to add more value and be more engaged. Learn more about the school. Direct, candid conversation. Be frank and address issues, ask questions, assume the best and don't dance around any conflict.

A. Smith made a motion to Approve bylaw changes on the current term limit language (see packet) wherein members can serve two consecutive 3 year terms.

M. Staten seconded the motion.
