B. Record Attendance

C. Public Comment

Key King -Parent at Emma Donnan.

- 3 students that attend - 2nd, 6th, 8th
- 6th/8th - Have decided to not return to the school next year.
- Family is very involved in the school. We love this school very much.
- Older students have decided to not return due to bullying at the school.
- 12 days worth of suspension for the 6th grader - when he is triggered he will respond in outbursts. He now has a behavioral plan in his IEP to support this.
- 8th grader is high ability. She said she did not want to return because of the way the teachers deal with verbal bullying. There are incidents when it happens to her and when she confronts the teacher, the teacher will brush it off. It comes off as they don't care.
- I encourage you to look over bullying policy. What resources need to be brought into the school? Training for teachers?

We reviewed 3 proposals as a committee

• Upgrades to the scholar center

- Digital Literacy Course - run a traditional library and lessons around digital literacy
- We have gotten rid of about 4,000 books due to be outdated and not being age appropriate.
- We are joining the Indianapolis Library shared system. Allows for support with preparing library, access to e-books, etc.
- Partnering with with RGE to reimagine this space.
 - There will be 2 phases.
 - Phase 1 - $40,000 - Begins in the next couple weeks.
 - Lower shelves for our smaller students
 - The Pit - raised stadium seating for instruction.
 - Soft seating

• New Books - $3500

- Bringing in new books from two preferred vendors.
- Quotes from 6 and 3 meet the need

• Executive and school Leadership Coaching - $18,000

- ADVISA - Partnering with them. We will be working with their team of consultants to define where we are now and where we are going. 10-12 staff will be part of this.
- Eddie R.
 - We did a diagnostic of our own - Students first, teachers, then systems.
 - The student experience is not where we want it to be currently
 - This leadership development is focused on getting clear on where we are.
 - What are we not yet doing that we can enhance the student experience?

• Questions/Thoughts Shared

- Barb B - Are you hiring a new staff member for the digital literacy role?
 - A current staff member will be stepping into the role.

- She is a current reading teacher
- Is a founding teacher
- Anna S- Where are we seeing the need for these difficult conversations (re: ADVISA Training)?
 - We are not see what each of us need as a team.
 - Creating more self-awareness.
 - How do we push through conflict?
 - We will also be hearing from our staff. What are their experiences like in the school?
- Eddie R. - My hope is that this work ADVISA is long term. I am connecting with two additional people to facilitate those conversations in service of what we are talking about with ADVISA.
- Jordan H - At the end of the define and diagnostic phase, what is the long term cost? ADVISA will be providing this for us.

B. Governance

Introduction of Hope Young - Potential Board Member in the Future

- Social worker
- Works for Starfish to provide mentorship for students.

Updated Provided by Anna. S

- DEI articles attached to the agenda.
- Ground and understand that individuals will have disagreements. There are ways to have productive conversations that provide understanding and clarity.
- Highlights from the articles
 - Recommendation is to remove the word fight. Focus on learning. Coming with curiosity and understand the person's experience and view point to help you understand them. Be able to share your own experience and perspective. Others want to learn from you. How does your lens shape your perspective on the topic?
 - If you set clear expectations on how you want to engage in the disagreement, it is helpful. Saying I am here to understand and value this relationship. Setting those expectations and intentions up front.
 - What are your own experiences with productive disagreement?
 - Nelson F- I focus on from the beginning setting the stage for the goal of the meeting. Goal needs to be a measurable action. If there is a disagreement between two individuals, maybe the action is a reoccurring meeting to set a plan for moving forward or maybe a team building activity. Keep sight of the next step and not going into emotions and feelings.

- Rachel C - People can interpret the same facts differently. Relationships between people - getting to know each other. Avoiding certain behaviors that damage relationships.
- Shayla S - Actively listening and engaging with whoever I am having the conversation with. Seek to understand. Know the objective for the conversation. How can we work together to solve this conflict? How can we work together?
- Kristy K - Recognizing the importance of conflict. We are all better when we engage in conflict. The higher trust the easier the relationship. Being vulnerable to have the conversations that need to be had. Seeking permission to have a difficult conversation. Helps people be more open to have open dialogue.
- Barb B- Being self-aware. How are you showing up? Evaluate your mindset in the space. Assume positive intent. Being open to conversation. Focus on the facts and why we are here. Be aware when things are going off track and re-center. Learning to react based on where you are sitting.
- Mary - Active listening - paraphrase for clarification for me. Understand where that person is coming from.
- Matt W - Understand my own emotional intelligence. Understanding my self-awareness and others. Understand my body language and temperament. How do you truly listen? Working through the things that you need to work through and not get bogged down.

- Next steps

- Board Evaluation
- CEO Evaluation - Next Month

Questions/Comments

- Nelson F. - Any updates on IPS referendum on updates to the building? Are they are including us in the design process?
 - January to begin
 - IPS still need to put out bids
