II. Executive Director's Report

A. 2014-15 Georgia Milestones

Matt Underwood shared the school-wide preliminary GA Milestones data, and discussed various ways the school will be examining and comparing the schoolwide data, and also individual student data. Also discussed were: how ANCS "Beat the Odds", emphasized the importance of looking at the data (but not using it as the only way to assess students' knowledge), and MAP testing. Matt also plans to come back and share once individual student reports are issued.

Tiffany Mitchell arrived.

B. Fall Feedback Surveys

M. Underwood presented the percentages of student and parent response to annual surveys, students', teachers' and parents' responses to individual questions on the survey. The next survey is in January.

III. Business & Operations

A. Facilities update

P. Pellerin gave an update on facilities on both campuses. There is not much update on the middle campus facility, however they are watching cracks in the walls. At the EC campus there is discussion on the best way to use the trailer space. Overall, the facilities are in good shape, no major issues to address immediately, the most imminent facilities job is the roof.

B. Monthly financial update

Kari will email her note to Ryan

C. Monthly Business & Operations Chair Report

R. Camp presented the budget. In general the budget is in line. Looking to increase the nutrition program budget. We are a little over budget for professional development, but Title II funds will cover this.

IV. Educational Excellence

A. Public affairs update

City of Atlanta-SPLOST funds (not yet available to Charter Schools) if/when the funds are available, ANCS will utilize this for facilities funding.

State of GA- Facilities is still the top priority

V. Board Governance

A. Monthly Board Governance Chair Report

L. Santos discussed the Quality of Life Task Force created by teachers, drafting the executive director's contract, mid-year retreat, nominations committee (discussed their needs), and advertising in the Courier.

B. Board Goals in Board on Track

The goal of this is to track progress towards goals that we have this year.

C. Board nominations committee

Mitch White made a motion to The nominations subcommittee will consist of Leigh, Tiffany, Matt, Lia and Mitch with Leigh as chair of subcommittee.
