II. New Business

A. Advancement Report

Presenter: Bex

- Reviewed financials.
- Reported lower revenue than anticipated.
- Suggested hosting a spring moves management event to increase donation capacity among current givers.

Fundraising Initiatives for the Remainder of the Year

VIP/Moves Management Event

- Bex suggested hosting the event at a private residence rather than on the farm.

Highlighting PTCA Spending

- Paige recommended emphasizing PTCA expenditures, including:
 - Faculty holiday gifts ($11,000).
- Discussed how the loss of COVID-related connections may impact younger families' giving expectations.

Education on School Needs

- Rebecca emphasized the need to better educate families about how contributions benefit their children's careers and programs.
- Proposed highlighting inclusivity within the school community.

Wonderball Enhancements

- Barrett suggested avoiding the exclusivity of spending culture but incorporating VIP elements, such as a preview event with Cost + 10% pricing to reduce unsold items.
- Susannah proposed silent auction packages (e.g., vacation homes, experiences) to add variety.

"Share the Love" Campaign

- Proposed a class competition to increase sign-ups for Gather & Grow.

- Announce winners at Wonderball.

Community Event Modeling

- Suggested ideas include:
 - Parent yard sale of artworks.
 - Wythe Academy: Students develop business models and create a market.

Timeline and Messaging Plan

- Presenter: Bex
 - Will share a timeline document with Alastair to outline key fundraising moments:
 - QR code at orientation for school supplies.
 - Message in Wolfie Bags.
 - QR code at Winter Wonderland.

End-of-Year Appeal (EOY Appeal)

- Update by: Bex
 - Messaging will target a broader audience this year through:
 - Mailchimp (current parents).
 - Bloomerang (donors).
 - Additional appeals proposed:
 - Grandparent-focused message, including new ANCS videos.
 - Personal email from Alastair to Kindergarten parents (mid-year recap and gift appeal).
 - Video messaging plan:
 - 1st video shared in the community.
 - 2nd video for additional engagement.
