II. Advancement

A. Financial Report

- April fundraising goal was $5,000, but $19,000 was raised.
- The group is under $8,000 short of the goal this year.
- Corporate matching is included in the number.
- Suggestion to include one last solicitation for corporate matches.
- Target families who have not donated this year, especially if they haven't done their school supplies.

B. Giving Week Report

- Started at $112,174 with a total goal of $140,000 and ended at $132,719.
- $14,000 raised during giving week.
- Recurring donor enrollments moved to 44 from 20. 75% were kindergarten and first grade families.
- Largest new recurring gift was $2,500 for the $2,500 corporate match.
- Monthly recurring gifts have increased 45%.
- Targeted work is needed for the third to fifth grade group.
- Saying it out loud over and over again will make it easier to donate.
- First graders will get their extra field day.
- Remind people how lucky we are after those incredible events.

III. Sponsorships

A. FY26 Sponsor Package Proposal

- A $10,000 Premier Platinum package has been added, making the sponsor the presenting banner sponsor for the event of their choice during the school year.
- This only applies to PTCA events, not Winter Wonderland or similar events.
- The $10,000 level includes being the banner sponsor, potentially with logo placement on the Run with the Wolves shirt and a header banner with a click-through link on the ANCS homepage.

- ANCS Music Fest is launching this year, entry only for the $10,000 level with the option for a table or activation on site.
- Fall Fest has been included in place of Wonder Ball.
- The Silver sponsor level is now the lower tier, with the bronze sponsor level being removed.
- Suggestion to create a giving society for families (e.g., "wolf pack level") to recognize their donations, separate from corporate sponsorships.
- Concern about giving race entries as perks, as it could reduce revenue from the event itself.
- Need to analyze the profit and loss (P&L) for events to understand the actual value of perks versus sponsorship levels.
- All solicitations, sponsorships, and in-kind donation sign-offs need to be managed internally.
- To ensure awareness of who is being asked for donations and to avoid multiple requests to the same businesses.
- Need to manage the perceived value of in-kind donations.
- In-kind donations should be recognized at a lower value than their retail value.
- Need a gift acceptance policy that defines what it means to accept a gift and what the PTCA provides in return.
- In-kind gift value is typically set by the donor, not the organization.
- The organization doesn't determine the value; the donor does.
- Suggestion to recognize in-kind donations at a percentage (e.g., 50%) of the donor's stated value to account for potential costs.
- The communication piece is key.
- All communication regarding sponsorships should go through one designated person to maintain a consistent voice.
- A centralized form should be used for all solicitation requests to ensure accountability and documentation.
- The form should track who is asking for what, from whom, and for what purpose.
- Need to ensure that businesses are responded to in a timely manner.
- The existing Google spreadsheet used to track sponsors should be used by the committee.
- PTCA chairs need to be informed not to solicit on behalf of their events.
- Need examples of well-written acceptance policies and internal communication strategies.
- Reframe fundraising efforts as "community engagement and solicitation" to avoid confusion.
- The fiscal year 2026 sponsorship package is ready for a vote.
- The deadline for sponsors to sign up for the fall event Music Fest is September 5th.
- Send the packet to existing sponsors in June and new solicitations in July.
- Checks can be dated for the next fiscal year (25-26) even if received earlier.
- Graphics will be added to the sponsorship package and then sent out.

- Sponsorship street team will solicit sponsors over the summer, focusing on last year's sponsors.
- No sponsor has first refusal on the top package.
- Sponsors can reserve an event by paying 50% of the sponsorship fee.
- Bigger sponsors pay in installments, but reservation isn't guaranteed until 50% is paid
- Bingo night is in January and will be indoors.

Bex Godsey made a motion to Approve the fiscal year 2026 sponsorship package.

Jonna Martin seconded the motion.

The committee VOTED to approve the motion.

B. End of School Year and What's Next

- Recurring giving is a good way to keep up momentum.
- Evan & Barrett are willing to solicit people for sponsorships.
- Others can help with communications ideas and event planning.
- Grandparent mailer is going out to 250 people.
- Assistance is needed with the grandparent mailer.
- The cards haven't come in yet, so the mailer will be pushed to the week of May 19th.
- A sign-up will be sent out for people to help stuff envelopes.
- There will be about 300 envelopes with return pledge cards.
- There is a list of grandparents that have donated this year and an added list of new grandparents within the last four years that have not donated this year.
- The goal is to meet on the morning of May 19th to assemble the mailers.
- People can come after drop-off or pick up materials to stuff at home.
- There will be a rotating door for people to come and help when they can.
- The mailer includes an opportunity to donate online or send a check.
- There is a business reply envelope included.
- Solicitations in the courier for corporate match.
- Rising kindergartner events are happening.
- Put something in the wolf pup bags. Put together by Natasha.
- A welcome email is sent to new families, outlining ways to get involved, including joining the PTCA and donating.
- Include a pledge form with donation requests, allowing people to commit to a specific amount.
- Use the card created for grandparents, tweaking it for parents, highlighting reasons for support.
- Consider "Pledges of Plenty" at the beginning of the year, but ensure it doesn't get lost amidst school supply and other kickoff-related noise.
- Pledges create a "hot list" for follow-up and potential upselling.
- Pledges provide a forecast of incoming funds and allow targeting larger gifts.

- Parent representatives from each grade could email their class, encouraging pledge form completion and donations.
- Gather & Grow table at open house was not successful.
- Incorporate pledge reminders into teacher updates and communications.
- Leverage class parents to target smaller groups of parents for fundraising.
- Focus on one singular message per event to avoid overwhelming parents.
- Consider passive fundraising methods like a Gather & Grow banner with a QR code in the hallway.
- Integrate a video about the spring fundraiser on the EC TV.
- Remind parents about school supply donations in summer communications.
- Integrate the pledge with school supply donations, offering a QR code for electronic pledges.
- Include a pledge card with a QR code in the folders teachers distribute.
- The system doesn't automatically send pledge reminders. Once pledges are entered, reminders are sent via manual email.
- New families can be overwhelmed by the school culture.
- Ashley mentioned confusion around the budget, funding needs, and school supplies.
- Events like the ice cream social can be unclear to new families.
- There's an email push for new families, but clarification is needed.
- The new family farm event is an opportunity to make asks.
- Pairing new families with older families can help answer questions. Natasha is working on this initiative. New families can ask questions without using the Facebook group or teachers.
- Meeting at events like the ice cream social can create a friendly connection.

IV. Closing Items

A. Adjourn Meeting

Respectfully Submitted,
Paige Teusink
