IV. Discussion Items

A. Kimberly Papillon Implicit Bias

Proposal by Alison Diaz to bring in Kimberly Papillon to conduct a full-day implicit bias training in the early summer for ECS board member, ECS leadership team, and the Equity & Diversity Committee. Currently negotiating the full cost of the training.

Governance Committee members were in favor of holding this training with a recommendation to send a Doodle poll to get as many of the subgroup as possible to attend.

B. Rotating committee visits by new board members

Jeremiah David proposed adding an action item for all new board members going through their onboarding process: within first 12 months, visit all standing committees on a rotating schedule.

Ken Deemer suggested adding a tracking sheet to track committee meeting visits by new board members. Also, he suggested to communicate about this new board member onboarding process addition at an upcoming board meeting.

C. Plan for Study Session with the Board

Request for Input (RFI) process for closed session to be facilitated by board member Anthony Jowid.

Recommendation to leave specific process up to Anthony Jowid as the resident expert of the RFI process.

D. Board Committee Roster Review

Jeremiah David presented the updated committee roster to be voted on for approval at the April 9 board meeting. Governance Committee members did not request any changes.

E. LCAP Year 2 Update Review Process

Proposal by Jeremiah David to hold a Special Governance Committee meeting in mid-May when the LCAP final draft is ready so that a thorough review of this document can be conducted.

Jeremiah David will send a Doodle poll to Governance Committee asking for potential dates in mid-May.

F. Review HR audit with leadership recommendations

Average score across categories in HR audit report was a 2.2 on a 3 point scale (3 high).

Key areas of development: onboarding, recruitment, training and development, performance management and employee relations.

Next steps: Hire director of talent and continue to outsource HR. Develop and document HR practices. Implement benefits project through new benefits broker for ECS. Manage and oversee HR department. Continue hiring for 18-19 school year. HR to support principals. Develop partnerships for recruiting and succession planning. Conduct departmental self-audits.
