III. Discussion Items

A. Discuss Executive Director evaluation process and goals

Committee member Anthony Jowid detailed the Executive Director (ED) evaluation process followed in the prior year for the previous Executive Director Alison Diaz.

The committee confirmed that the ED evaluation process would be only of Farnaz Golshani-Flechner since she started before the start of the current school year.

The committee discussed whether the same process using the same technology would be used again for the upcoming ED evaluation of Farnaz Golshani-Flechner. The 360 leadership evaluation tool that was recently established was agreed to be used as the mechanism for the ED evaluation.

A timeline was discussed, with the 360 leadership evaluation process to start in February 2020 and to conclude by the June 2020 board meeting. A more detailed timeline will be provided after further planning by the committee takes place.

Action item: Jeremiah to send the Board on Track survey template to the Governance Committee so that the Committee may compare it against the 360 leadership evaluation tool. The Committee will provide feedback to ECS leadership for changes and additions that they recommended.

B. Discuss 19/20 Committee Memberships

The Committee noted that there are two vacancies: one on the Audit Committee and the other on the Finance Committee.

The Committee discussed potential board members to fill the vacancies and recommended that board member Cathy Creasia be asked to join the Audit Committee and board member Denise Berger be asked to join the Finance Committee.

Action item: Farnaz Golshani-Flechner will inquire with the aforementioned board members about joining these committees and report back.

C. Discuss Board Member Candidates and Pipeline
