III. Discussion Items

A. Discuss Executive Director/CEO evaluation process and goals

The committee stated that the previous ED/CEO evaluation process worked well and that they would like to build on that process for the upcoming evaluation for Farnaz Golshani-Flechner.

The committee recommended that the Board on Track CEO evaluation tool will be utilized as it was in the previous process and one addition to this process is to include 360 Leadership Survey results answered by key ECS staff of Farnaz Golshani-Flechner. The board will review these results and provide feedback in closed session at the ECS board meeting in June.

B. Discuss prospective board member nominations

ECS staff described the standard board nomination process and the committee resolved that Anthony Jowid and Ken Deemer would interview the three prospective board members that attended the ECS board meeting on April 16, then proceed to either nominate or decline the prospective board members in preparation for new board member elections at the June board meeting.

C. Discussion on adding student member to ECS board

The committee discussed the possibility of adding student member to ECS board and resolved that ECS staff should analyze the current bylaws and other policies and provide recommendations for policy revision in order to ensure that the organization is arranged to optimally set up the student member for success.

D. Discuss 5-Year Strategic Priorities

The committee reviewed strategic priorities for the organization, including the new addition of benchmarks and metrics specific to the COVID-19 school closure period.
