III. Discussion Items / Updates

A. EdTec financial review

EdTec VP of Client Management and General Manager of Southern California Dorothy Lee presented the financial review:

State budget update: large LCFF funding cut ultimately did not happen. New funds available through Learning Loss Mitigation Funding. ADA is held harmless from previous year. Minimum instructional days ended up being set back to the standard 175 instructional days. Many sources of funding through CARES. Longest ever deferrals are in store for FY 21-22.

ECHS variances were shown. LCFF was higher than expected due to state budget revision. African-American student advocate, teaching assistants, among the increases in expenses paid for by Learning Loss Mitigation Funding. These funds must be expended by December 31, 2020. Finance Committee suggested in future presentations to break down expenditures between those that are recurring and one-time. New forecast is $212k net income. CapEx was examined with HVAC installation project having a large positive impact on net income due to depreciation.

ECMS-G changes from forecast were shown. LCFF funding was higher than expected to due the state budget revisions.

ECMS-I changes from forecast were shown. LCFF funding again was higher than expected to due the state budget revisions. CapEx projects were noted and expected deferrals were reviewed.

B. Fundraising YTD update

C. ECHS #2 Letter of Intent update

Director of Growth and Sustainability Alison Diaz provided a brief update: ECS is still actively seeking a site for ECHS #2 and is working on an LOI for a property. Once more information is available on this LOI, it will be presented to the committee and board.

D. Menlo 165th refinance update

Director of Finance Tracy Bondi provided a brief update: the Menlo 165th refinance is in process. To date, no official paperwork has been received. Once more information is available on this refinance an update will be presented to this Committee.

E. Beneficial State Bank Line of Credit update

Tracy Bondi noted that Beneficial State Bank is offering a Line of Credit at $600k that is much higher than what ECS currently has access to via another bank.

At the next meeting, ECS staff will provide the Line of Credit paperwork for the Committee to review.

F. Childcare expense benefit discussion

Farnaz Golshani-Flechner provided a brief update: a survey was recently sent to all ECS employees and the responses showed overwhelming support for ECS to provide limited-time funds to cover childcare expenses employees that are currently in need. ECS intends to move forward with this benefit through the provision of Dependent Care FSA accounts for the employees in need of this help.
