III. Discussion Items / Updates

A. EdTec financial review

EdTec Consultant Dorothy Lee provided the financial review:

At beginning of March, AB 86 was passed which provides $2B in in-person instruction grants. Grant period begins on April 1. For every day not open after April 1, will lose 1% of grant funding. Estimated maximum grant amounts: ECHS-L 203k, ECMS-G: 118k ECMS-I: 124k. Will default grant money if school stops offering in-person instruction during grant time period. LEA will need Covid Safety Plan in place and CDE report on in-person instruction will be due June 1.

Another part of AB 86 is $4.6B in expanded learning grant opportunities. 85% for in-person instruction and 10% for paraprofessionals, with up to 15% of the entire funding that can be used for remote learning.

ESSER II and ESSER III are additional pools of potential funding. There are many eligible expenditure categories, including learning loss and facilities, among others.

ECHS-L operating income increased by $240k. Savings in tech services and home office expenses and increases in local revenue, federal revenue (meal reimbursement). ECHS-L capital expenditures and balance sheet were reviewed.

ECMS-G operating income increased by $39k. Savings in comp & benefits, and increases in local and federal revenue and LCFF. This was offset by increases in expenses in teacher substitutes, consultants, and internet services. ECMS-G capital expenditures and balance sheet were reviewed.

ECMS-I operating income increased by $19k. Savings in home office expenses, and increases in local and federal revenue and LCFF. This was offset by increases in expenses in teacher substitutes, consultants, and internet services. ECMS-G capital expenditures and balance sheet were reviewed.

ECHS-G operating income increased by $492k. Budget revision in federal grant, postponing many expenditures until the following fiscal year. ECHS-G capital expenditures and balance sheet were reviewed.

Cash balances were reviewed for all schools. ESSER money is not reflected yet but it will be when received, resulting in higher cash balances.

Director of Finance Tracy Bondi presented the compensation analysis:

California minimum wage has been rising, set to cap at $15/hour in 2022. In order to remain competitive and ensure teachers feel valued, the following adjustments were proposed to the salary schedule for FY21/22: 2% increase in step (Y2-Y10), 3% increase in step (Y11-13), 1.5% increase in step (Y14-16), 0.75% increase in step (Y17-20). The year 1 Intern minimum salary increase to align with the California minimum wage starting in 2022 and a higher monthly rate for SPED/Counselor pay due to more time spent for credential required and greater student load.

ECS administrator pay for Principals, Assistant Principals, Deans, and Directors will be analyzed accordingly at the following board meeting. ECS is collecting data across other organizations to benchmark ECS wages. Early indications are that we will recommend adjusting up some of our administrator salaries effective FY21/22 to be competitive with other similar organizations.

ECS para-educator pay will be analyzed at the following board meeting as well. ECS is reviewing compensation across campuses and in relation to local similar employers. ECS seeks to ensure equitable and consistent pay structures across campuses as they prepare to open a new campus. Also, seeking to incentivize para-educators to grow into teachers or other positions, so the expectation is that there will be a salary range with a cap for this position.

B. Fundraising YTD update

CEO Farnaz Golshani-Flechner provided the fundraising YTD update:

ECS fundraising goal is $3.045M, comprised of:

- General Fund 2020/2021: $445,000
- General Fund Future Years: $600,000
- Capital ECHS-Gardena 20/21: $2,000,000

This year to date, raised $700k toward capital campaign. Significant grants already secured with more grants recently submitted and awaiting adjudication.

The Change Reaction program continues to support families in need, and for the ECHS-G capital campaign, over 20+ presentations have been given to more than 50 individuals and the recruitment of the Growth & Sustainability Committee continues.
