II. Governance

A. Board Member Recruitment

Stil in recruiting mode. We have 2 candidates to interview tonight.

SW introduced a potential candidate to J Lampton and M Roney.

J Lampton has questions about school tours for new candidates in lieu of COVID-19. A discussion has with the committee on possibilities of the school tours.

B. Dr. Gail Medford Interview

GV Committee interview of Dr. G Medford.

A retiree from Louisville State University. Faculty and administrative work as an educator.

Has a grand-niece attending the school. She believes IHSNO allows students to develop in their personage. She wants to be used to help others through the journey of education to move prepared to the collegiate level.

Questions field by candidate of GV Committee members.

The candidate may be a good fit for Academics and Governance (has a greater need)

C.

Leslie Scott Porter Interview

GV Committee interview of Leslie Scott Porter.

Public school teachers for nearly 30 years, with the last several years at College Track. Has taught in rural, suburban, and urban environments. This NOLA experience helped me thrive at College Track. She gets to see the work that schools are putting in for all students. She also sees the inequities that exist as well. Experiences and exposure differences have shined through. Partner more closely with schools.

Questions fielded by the candidate of the GV Committee members.

The candidate may be a good candidate for the Academic Committee
