III. 2026-2031 Sponsorship

A. Review & Consideration of Sponsorship Agreement with KCPS

Dr. Miles introduced Mr. McDaniel (Guin Mundorf) to lead the discussion. Mr. McDaniel provided an overview of KCPS's general charter sponsorship process and the sequence of events that led to the current proposed agreement.

Mr. McDaniel addressed a specific clause in the agreement pertaining to charter revocation, clarifying that any potential revocation would follow a collaborative probationary process rather than an arbitrary or abrupt determination. He confirmed that this approach is consistent with both KCPS's sponsorship manual and the language of the agreement as written.

Mr. McDaniel then addressed the clause referencing KCPS's commitment to reinvest 15% of its 1.5% sponsor fee back to Citizens. He noted that historically, Dr. Hile has worked individually with charter schools to determine the most applicable use of those funds, and that the provision is intentionally broad in scope to allow for flexibility.

Mr. McDaniel facilitated a brief discussion regarding the proposed redline changes and invited any remaining Board questions or comments. The Board indicated agreement with the proposed changes. Mr. McDaniel confirmed that KCPS has accepted all redline changes and that the Board is now in a position to formally approve the agreement, noting the April 3rd submission deadline.

Ms. Rios called for a motion to approve the agreement.
