B. Clifton, Larson, Allen Audit Presentation

Robert Redondo, Associate at Clifton, Larson, Allen (CLA) presented on the overall audit process Scholarship Prep underwent. The audit included an analysis of federal program funding spending by the organization and overall financial management practices within the organization. CLA did not identify any material weaknesses or significant deficiencies, which means that they did not identify any sort of a breakdown of internal controls or lack of internal controls, that might mean that there's a higher chance of misstatement not being identified or detected by the school.

C. Organization Update

Executive Director Jason Watts presented an update for the organization as a whole. He discussed the challenges the Omnicron variant has presented to campus and how the organization has managed contact tracing and positive tests among students and staff while still ensuring the utmost level of safety for all. He specifically commended the work of Chief Operating Officer Sarah Schoenfeld-Nakamoto and Compliance Coordinator Allie Masse.

Ms. Nakamoto noted that across all schools there were about 180 cases, from the beginning of the pandemic, until winter break.
