A. Oceanside Campus Update

Principal Jessica Leahy shared an update with the board including a writing competition between students, red ribbon week on campus, literature day, and trunk or treat.

B. Orange County Campus Update

Principal Dennise Allotey shared a brief presentation with the board about activities happening around campus for students including a gold rush-themed event, a partnership with Sage Hill High School, and a high school information night for students.

C. South Bay Campus Update

Dean Dr. Kaylie Gomez shared a presentation with the board including new academic progress made in classrooms along with campus events like Dia De Los Muertos, red ribbon week, and literature day.

D. Organization Update

Executive Director Jason Watts shared an organizational update with the board including enrollment figures and information about the employee retention credit that Scholarship Prep has qualified for and applied to.

E. Financial Update from Charter Impact

Kate Eng from Charter Impact provided a financial update for Scholarship Prep with new projections for all the campuses adjusted to current enrollment figures.

Oceanside saw a net impact revenue of plus $20,000

Orange County will have a small surplus of $30,000

South Bay saw a revenue increase of $100,000 due to the impact of the employee retention credit.

Vice President Otero asked what is the amount recommended in financial reserves per school. Ms. Eng shared the state recommends 5% of annual operating costs but it can vary depending on the authorizer. She shared Scholarship Prep is well within that with 45% for Oceanside, 33% for Orange County and 26.5% for South Bay.
