II. Board Chair Updates

A. Visiting Drew's Board Meeting

Drew Board Meeting will be discussed in Governance Committee Meeting to school leadership. Administrators and Teachers presented items on Agenda not Board Members.

B. Training Requirements

New Board Members are required to have 15 hours of training :

- 3 hours in Finance (Funding and Budgeting)
- 3 hours in Team Training (Governance will decide)
- 3 hours of Elective

9 hours of training for existing members

Most training can be done online and all must be complete by June 30.

3 hours in Governance

3 hours in Finance

3 hours Elective

Team Training sessions are usually 2 to 3 hours. Great way to get 6 hours of training for new and existing members.

III. Executive Director Updates

A. General Updates

All Teams are in a good space. Security has smoothed out since the 1st of school year. The tragedy this fall in Barrow County was made public that they did not have a metal detection system.

Grateful the board supported this decision.

ED walks the halls a couple of times a day and is pleased seeing the instruction in classrooms and hallways clear .

Staff is headed over to see Coan on Nov 5 and there will be a plan to have parents visit school building

Move will be intense and will be all consuming starting in January.

B. CFO and Business Manager

CFO announces her retirement in the year 2026.

Plan is to have Lisa help finding her succession person.

Introduces Sharene Smith as New Business Manager.

IV. Governance

A. Governance Committee Goals

4 Goals :

1. Analysis the skills needed on board for Board recruitment
- 2 Review Bylaws
- 3 Develop orientation and training for new board members
- 4 Regularly check to make sure board meetings are effective

O. Okwara made a motion to to approve Gaols.

A. Hunter seconded the motion.

B. Discuss Safety Issues

Safety Issues: Evolve system caught 4 parents with weapons, this was an accident and parents put away item in their car. There has been no complaints of this system being used.

Parents and Teachers feel safe with all the safety measures Wesley has put in place. Clear Backpacks, SRO, Security at all entrances.

C. Board on Track Skills Assessment

BOT of assessment of skills needed. All Board members have been asked to please complete before Governance Committee meeting in November.

D. Updates on Enrollment

Donica presents enrollment updates which is more often since COVID.

The enrollment has changed since COVID and the drop effects are more home schooling, low birth rate. We are close to 800 but we don't want to rush this process. 780 students to date. Tours, flyers and visiting schools will start in November. Weekly tours start in November and will continue for 12 weeks. The move could impact enrollment and trying to have incentives for people to stay.

Billboard advertising was suggested by Adrian Hunter

Kwende Jones acknowledges Donica and her team on enrollment.

E. ED Goals for 2024-25

K. Jones made a motion to goals recommended by Governance and Board for ED.

E. Cater seconded the motion.

1. Retention for staff of 90%
2. Succession for CFO and job description. Plan and process for search.
3. Increase math and ELA scores by 3% all forward proficiency or exceed.

Standards changed this year so delay until December.

Math grew 8% and we meet our goals.

There will no longer be stretch goals on ED Contract.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.
