V. Academic Excellence

A.

Academic Updates

MAP Winter Assessments:

Administered three times a year to track student progress.

Reading Performance

- Each grade level showed a decrease in flagged students, with many moving into the improvement category.
- Proficiency: 34% in ELA, a notable increase from last year.

Math Performance:

- Proficiency: 27%, reflection growth from the previous year.
- Focus remains on monitoring student progress through each unit and providing targeted support.
- Strategies implemented are expected to positively impact Milestones performance.

Next Steps for Growth

- Maintain consistency in instructional strategies.
- Strengthen small group interventions.
- Implement a detailed system for weekly progress monitoring.

VI. Finance

A. Mid-Year Budget Revisions

Budget Revisions Overview:

- The mid-year budget revisions, attached to the agenda, allow for adjustments to the projected budget, either by adding or reducing allocation as necessary.

Function codes

- Function codes provide a detailed breakdown of where expenses are allocated within the budget.

Variables Impacting 2024 Revenue

- Increase in QBE Funding: The Quality Basic Education (QBE) funding, particularly from the state health plan, helping to offset rising healthcare costs.
- Private Funding: As a private institution, we receive funding that, while beneficial, does not cover all expenses.

Additional Funding:

- 500 k for FTE, in funding has been secured. The last stipend from the state was received last year of 60k.

FTE Forecast

- Initial Projection: The Full-time Equivalent (FTE) student count was initially forecasted at 746.
- Actual Count: The actual FTE count reached 773, resulting in an additional 500 k in revenue.

Unrestricted Cash Policy

- Working Capital: Our policy mandates maintaining 45 days of working capital.
- Positive Outcome: Due to favorable actual numbers from last year, we did not need to transfer $200,000 from operating cash.

Revenue Details

- Based on FTE of 773: The majority of revenue is allocated to employee compensation.
- $600,00 Increase:

Stipends:

- Each employee received a $2500 stipend on August 15. Additionally, $2000 is allocated for mid-year stipends.

New Capital Budget Items:

- Gym Speaker System
- Media Center Shelving

- Capital Expenses Increase: These additions result in a $64,000 increase in capital expenses

Budget Discussion:

- New Facility Grant: A new grant of $100,00 has been secured for facility improvements.
- Expenses: Compensation expenses have increased by $690,000, accounting for stipends, Teachers Retirement System (TRS) contributions, healthcare, and FICA taxes.
- Revenue vs. Expenses: Revenue has increased by $702,000, while expenses have risen by $642,000.

K. Jones made a motion to approve 2024-2025 Revision Budget.

O. Okwara seconded the motion.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.

VII. Closing Items

A. Adjourn Meeting
