II. Academic Excellence

A. Principal's Report

Sharing more accurate data

- Newer charts illustrate how Summit performs in relation to the CSD, district, and similar students
- Mixed evidence of success in regents data
 - Regents data indicates that we are outperforming the city although the district is doing better than the city
 - Regents performance dips because of personnel but the school made adjustments and brought in new staff
 - Scholars retook the ELA assessment in January and 80% passed
- Still waiting for DOE clarity around how college readiness is calculated
 - SACS to send a formal request for a description of how college readiness is calculated

2018 - 2019 Instructional Push for ELA

- Administered mock ELA assessment and teacher analysis
- Fridays for review, re-teach, re-assess
- Focus on priority standards
- Using data, revised curriculum map to reflect attack of standards that are below mastery

Wish List

- In school tutoring service with a program like Sylvan or Kumon

III. Development

A. Education Matters Gala

- 160 guest attended
- The venue was nicer than previously used. We got more for our money

- The financial report will be shared at the next meeting

IV. Finance

A. Cash Flow for February

- SACS is projecting a surplus
- We are maintaining 90 cash on hand in the bank
- SACS is closing out February and will send a full report within a few days

V. Renewal

A. DOE Update

- DOE proposed restructuring or closure
- The SACS board is in full support of the school and personnel but is working with the DOE to keep the doors open
- The RFA was circulated and the board and the DOE are reviewing the applications
- SACS has given the DOE a counter proposal which will meet the school improvement needs and satisfy the school community
- Staff has questions about process and non-negotiables
- What are other schools like us doing to move scholars? Can we take that information and implement better programs? What does a candidate need to improve?
 - Strong professional development
 - Strategic Summer Institute
 - Rigorous curriculum
 - One on one coaching with teachers so that instruction that is driven by data
 - Stronger behavioral system
 - Mandatory Saturday Academy
 - Strong operations
 - Using field trips to support instruction
 - Rich in technology and advanced science
 - Addresses social emotional needs of scholars
 - Support with ICT teachers
 - How do general education teachers work with scholars who are very deficient
 - Remediation programs
 - Long term tracking of credits and attendance intervention

B. School Leadership Meeting & Proposal
