June Instructional Report

June Instructional Report Analysis

Literacy/ELA

- From 2023-2024, Literacy/ELA scores remained unchanged: Overall, 61% of students in grades 6-8 did well (2024), almost even with how Summit Academy students performed in 2023 (62%). 6th-grade increased scores by 5%.

Math

- 6th-grade students increased their scores by 3% from 2023 - 2024.
- Overall, 43% of students performed 7% below City averages.

June Instructional Report Analysis

Literacy/ELA

- 7th-grade scores, primarily in writing, caused a 6% decrease from 2023-2024.

Math

- Overall, 6th-8th grade students scores' decreased by 7% from 2023-2024 (from 50% to 43%)—primarily do to a 17% decrease from 2023-2024 in 8th-grade. These are now your 9th-grade.

Summer School Results

For this years Summer school we had 17 scholars in Middle School.

6th- 3 scholars

7th- 6 scholars

8th- 11 scholars

Of the 17 students who attended summer school, 6 students did not meet promotional criteria and will be retained in their respective grades.

For HS the pass/fail results are not available to us as yet. Typically, students will come to school with a letter from their summer school site stating if the scholar passed or failed the course. If the student does not have the letter we engage with the school to get documentation about the students grades in summer school so that we can accurately schedule a program for the scholar.

- Budget adjusted mid-year to reflect changes that occur in the fiscal year.
  - Budget created April of the previous year
  - Adjustments made once we have more actual data
- The cash on hand is healthy but lower than it was year ago

IV. Renewal

A. Partnership Progress

CEI partnership ended on June 30th. The school has been working with Lavinia Group.

- Lavinia has been engaging with staff and coaches to introduce their curriculum for MS
- SACS Coaches are driving instructional support on a day to day basis. Lavinia will work with coaches and leadership to ensure that the curriculum is being used with fidelity
- Expectation that leadership, board, and Lavinia have scheduled meetings. This allows the board to be actively involved in the enhancement of the school educational program

Perhaps set up visits to schools that are doing well and earning 5-year renewals.

Awaiting feedback from the DOE regarding the partnership

B. Renewal Conditions

The board worked with school leadership to address the conditions set forth by the DOE.

- Plan to monitor progress
- All responses must be plan and execution driven
- Conditions were not submitted on July 15 as per the requirement
- Monitor next set of requirements due to ensure that everything is submitted before the deadline
  - Create a task sheet with the ability to add responsible person

V. School Attorney

A. New Attorney

- The board has retained counsel to assist with hiring practices, and develop policies.

VI. Governance

A. Board Candidates

Lottie Almonte will be departing the board as of September 1, 2024. We thank her for her commitment and contributions over the years.

B. Board Committees

In response to renewal conditions, committees have begun to meet and will begin using Board on Track to document meetings.

VII. Board Responsibilities

A. Annual Report, Board Committee Reports, Members and Membership

Policies created to ensure that the board is managing governance appropriately.

- Board of Trustee Record Retention Policy
- Board member roles and responsibilities
- Board checklist
- Board member training policy

VIII. Closing Items

A. Adjourn Meeting

M. Bernard made a motion to close the August board meeting.
