A. Board Responsibilities What Is Your Commitment

Reviewed Board Commitment and align on our responsibilities and commitment.

B. Team Building Share Your Dream

Why are you on THIS board?

Passion for education and African American community.

To ensure no child is left behind and can have a stellar education.

Because of the work we can do to provide a better education for children.

Teach for America alum and was looking for opportunities and fell in love with ASA vision.

To grow school impact in the community. More musically inclined - a space that is done in house is important.

Reflecting on the past 6 years - because of board have brought into the dream encourages her to come.

What is your dream for ASA?

K-12 school in math, science and arts expansion.

Lynch pin for shopping center and what a successful enterprise does for their community .

Educational model that can be replicated.

Impact as many students and families as possible.

Provide stellar education and allow the students to dream and have the skills to be all they can be.

Model for education - not to leave any children and / or communities behind.

What will you personally commit to that you will be held accountable for and report on QUARTERLY to accomplish the appropriate segment of your ASA dream)

To solidify who is committed to be on the finance committee and utilize board on track and fundraising development.

To contact someone in Cox and network with at least (2) people and bonus a teacher that demonstrates ASA innovation in his or her community.

To be more involved in helping kids see what is possible (e.g. SCAD) helping to connect something that is real (e.g. field trip, etc.) going to a broadways play.

To create a marketing and fundraising plan that is repeatable.

Build partnerships and relationships with various companies, non-profit and universities.
