V. Operations Report

A. School Operations

Tommy Reddicks

Reviewed the Gates sponsored National meeting, "Convening on District-Charter Collaboration" in Cleveland with charter school through-out the Midwest. Indiana was the newest state to be included. Introduced Emily Besinger, one of our new fellows. Emily has been helping with the 2017-2018 budget.

Shawna Ping

Loan payment to IFF cleared the bank on Monday, April 10, 2017.

Kyle Beauchamp

After school tutoring averaged over 100 students for the school year. Administration is currently seeking new teachers and are conducting interviews every day.

Adam Freeman

Adam and Ms. Grady attended a job fair at University of Southern Indiana. They conducted approximately 10 one on one interviews and talked with an additional 40 or more candidates.

Tonia Bireley

97% of our 3rd graders passed the IREAD Assessment. The last two year our scores have been in the low 90's. Teachers and students have worked very hard and it shows in our test scores. Three students did not pass and will be able to retake the test this summer. These students are in our SPED program and teachers will work with them for the remainder of the school year. Teachers and Administration are getting ready for round 2 of ISTEP starting next week. We will receive WIDA scores in approximately 2 weeks.

Mary Laflin

Mary is our new Director of Operations for PSOE1. One Call Now System, a messaging system that sends information out to our parents and families has been installed. An extra supply closet has been installed in the middle school wing. Preventative maintenance has been scheduled for the middle school HVAC system.

Dre Knox

Discipline incidents have been low since returning from spring break. Discipline staff have been visible in the classrooms of our repeat offenders. One Call Now system is helping with calling parents regarding absences and tardy issues.

Barb Richardson

Eli Lilly matched contributed $7,500 for the summer STEAM program for staff salaries.

ROW/CICF - $5,000 for STEAM Water Cycle documentation and curriculum. Elanco $42,070 ($15,320 Farm Infrastructure, $23,750 for indoor Eco Discovery Center).

External relations, TURN Festival Save the Date cards are now available for distribution.

Chris Larson

Working hard on the school grounds for the May 7th Peace Park opening. Newly hire, garden/landscape coordinator, Lisa Hopman, has started and is working out well. The kick-off meeting with the Kitchen Committee was very well attended with 23 school representatives. A veterinarian referral will b made by Tom Rude.

VI. New Business

A. New Business
