B. Presentation by EDIN

S. Tague presented on the purpose and mission of EDIN: Connecting people and places on the East Side of Indianapolis

Neighborhood grants have 3 tracks: communication, image, video

They are funded through the Nottingham Group - they made a 3 year commitment

They are requesting to partner and fund a $10,000 grant request in exchange for a seat on the EDIN Board.

PSOE can also make connections within interested parties in the area.

They are hosting the Eastside games and Pi Day.

They are just under 1 year old and have 6 members.

The geographic location is Meridian to Post and 30th to Prospect.

T. Reddicks spoke about how TURN and EDIN's efforts are connected to expand the impact beyond Brookside.

All members are residents of East Side neighborhoods and hold positions within their neighborhood associations.

T. Rude is in favor of moving forward to vote on the $10,000 ask.
