IV. New Business

A.

OEI Board Assurance

T. Rude commented on the benefits of the OEI (Office of Education Innovation) reports. They provide a "report card" for the schools and let us know where to improve. This allows school leadership to state how they will meet goals.

C. Park shared it would be helpful if there was a more succinct way of viewing the report metrics, similar to a report card.

The Board signed the 17-18 assurances document.

B. Approve 19-20 Budget

T. Reddicks shared the only changes made to the budget since last month were to account for legislative change. He also gave an update on the progress made on the budgeting CRM. H. Okerson shared Paramount Community Heights was within $50,000 of the projected budget, showing the effectiveness of our current budgeting model.

T. Rude made a motion to approve the budget as distributed via Board on Track.

B. Eldridge seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

V. Operations Report

A. Operations Report

T. Reddicks shared updates to facilities. He also shared the update of S. Frye moving to the Chief Academic Officer position, and Dexter Taylor is moving into the principal role at Brookside.

T. Palacios shared changes in insurance brokers and that our study abroad trip is going as planned.

J. Monk shared work underway on facilities and procedures.

H. Okerson shared she is closing out the financial year with BPI. She is also preparing for the initial 18-19 audit meeting. Since we are considered low risk, the auditors will test less grant dollars. H. Okerson also shared she and N. Khan Clark are working to record financial processes. B. Richardson shared preparations are underway for TURN, and Paramount currently has two billboards visible in the neighborhood. N. Khan Clark shared her progress on internal audits, Salesforce record keeping, and working with STEAM to get all the student employment paperwork. B. Richardson shared the purpose of the Salesforce CRM.

T. Rude added he is proud of the work the schools are doing; and by our schools succeeding, the caliber of education in the city will improve as well.

B. Principal Report Discussion

D. Sawyers, the principal at Paramount Englewood, shared he is busy staffing and recruiting. He currently has staff and students signed up for Eastside Games.

K. Beauchamp, the principal at Paramount Community Heights, talked about the work the leadership team conducted focused on the frameworks in preparation for entering into the 19-20 school year. Nearly half of the student population is enrolled in summer school. They had 100% teacher retention.

S. Frye, the outgoing principal at Paramount Brookside, shared successes about the Farm Team, Time and Space, FACT, and general education teachers working together.
