V. Operations Report

A. Operations Report

Tommy Reddicks- Executive Director

- Discussion of Cottage Home potential

- The Board will be getting emails and information around funding.

- TURN festival went well thanks to efforts from the Navigation and school teams

- The Navigation Team is looking for an HR Coordinator of Employment and a CPA. We are using Dennsen to support on a temporary basis.

- Enrollment in September was locked in at 1060 students.

- The Paramount Health Data Project continues to do well with Tommy and Jess presenting at various conferences.

Jess Monk- Chief Operating Officer

- PowerSchool cleanup at the school level has taken place to ensure proper reporting, especially concerning attendance.
- Actively involved in the TURN festival.
- Efforts surrounded supporting schools with various operational needs, mainly submitting documentation to secure funding for the St. Claire property and facilities planning for Paramount Englewood and Paramount Community heights for their 2020 move.

Tara Gustin- Director of Special Programs

- Supported schools with state reporting, specifically around Membership.
- Continuing to ensure fidelity with special programs.

Hannah Okerson- Bookkeeper

- The audit has gone smooth, and the auditors will present their findings at the next Board meeting.
- Updated on TURN financials.

Barb- Director of Advancement

- About 4500 people came through the festival.
- There were 115 attendees at the TURN dinner. The net profit was about $8700, which will be split with our partners.
- The overall net was about $25,000.
- The new marketing video showcasing all schools was shown.

B. Principal Report Discussion

Dexter Taylor - Principal at Paramount Brookside

- The school is focusing on increasing rigor in the classroom since the beginning of the year data is complete.
- Tutoring started this last Monday.
- Academic coaches have been in the classrooms providing feedback.
- The SCO meeting brought in around 60 families for their meeting about credit repair.
- The school is partnering with a community organization to provide support through tennis.

Darius Sawyers - Principal at Paramount Englewood

- Tutoring will begin in a month.
- Beginning of the year data is being used to determine gaps and to identify students for tutoring.

- The school hired a new Recovery Teacher.
- Thank you to the Board for attending First Friday.
- The SCO meeting had around 20 families present.

Kyle Beauchamp - Principal at Community Heights

- October is a busy month as we head towards fall break.
- Tutoring and parent/teacher conferences are on their way. Tutoring is drawing about 75 students to the program. There will be 3 sessions.
- There have been tours coming through the building lately, notably the IDOE and the Mind Trust.

Sarah Shaffer - Assistant Principal at Community Heights

- There is a focus on teacher observations and feedback. Scott Frye has been in the building regularly to help support that.
- The SCO meeting was focused on data and how to support students at home.
