VII. Committees

A. Academic/Governance

T. Rude showed where the most current policies are saved on Board on Track. P. Blackard stated the need to review all policies every 3 years at a minimum.

T. Rude shared the goals the Board would focus on during the Governance Committee for the remainder of this year.

Changes to the Travel Policy were presented and discussed. P. Blackard suggested changing the travel per diem language to read "IRS Standard" versus a value.

The Board's Open Door Policy and Electronic Participation Policy were presented and discussed. These documents will be shared out and edited by Governance Committee members prior to the March meeting.

B. Finance

The first draft of the budget was presented for Board feedback.
