V. Operations Report

A. Operations Report

T. Reddicks reported the organization's preparedness actions to handle the Coronavirus spread. The plan involves additional health education, cleaning/disinfecting, e-Learning plans, and other operational processes that will minimize the amount of learning lost in the event the school needs to close.

T. Palacios reported out HR is focused on peak hiring season.

B. Richardson reported efforts made to support schools with recruiting students for the 20-21 school year, including yard signs, Urban Times, brochures, and billboards.

A. Wong reported work she has done with Hannah on systems and procedures.

T. Gustin reported work has been completed to update transportation policies for homeless and foster students.

H. Okerson reported she is working closely with the organization's new CPA to train her on financial processes.

J. Monk reported the progress made on PR Mallory and St. Clair facility builds to ensure readiness for the July 1 move in for Paramount Englewood and Paramount Cottage Home (Community Heights).

C. Larson reported applications for STEAM are out, the garden is getting turned over, and new fruit plants are being procured. New goats will be introduced to the farm in April.

B. Principal Report Discussion

D. Taylor (principal at Paramount Brookside) reported work has been done with the assistant principal and curriculum coordinator to ensure academics are strong in classrooms. AIRWays data looks solid. Two robotics teams advanced to the Worlds competition in April. Josiah Brooks, a 7th-grade student, won a $1,000 scholarship and internship through an ICSN (IN Charter School Network) video competition.

K. Beauchamp (principal at Paramount Community Heights) reported out efforts around developing e-Learning plans. The staff at Paramount Community Heights is focused on gearing up for State assessments and hiring staff for the 20-21 school year. The school has partnered with Joey Mulinaro to film this year's ILEARN video.

D. Sawyers (principal at Paramount Englewood) reported work on staff and student recruiting, as well as their growth on AIRWays.
