V. Operations Reports

A. Navigation Team Reports

Paramount just held its first Summit on 9/10. There were multiple sessions led by staff, and feedback was overwhelmingly positive.

B. Principal Reports

D. Taylor & K. Sherrow (Paramount Brookside) gave a shout-out to the Navigation staff for the Summit. The school has parent-centered events planned to increase engagement. Observation and feedback sessions have focused on special education and ELL to support all learners. Beginning-of-year testing is coming to a close, and staff is collaborating to ensure they meet growth targets going into middle-of-year testing.

T. Gustin (Paramount Cottage Home) echoed the focus on data meetings based on beginning-of-year test results. The school is preparing for tutoring, which will provide students showing the most need additional targeted instruction.

D. Sawyers (Paramount Englewood) stated the school is gearing up for tutoring based on baseline assessment data. Extracurriculars are back this year, including Culture Club, Cross Country, online gaming, and other offerings. New Teacher Academy has also started, which is providing support to new teachers at the school.

B. Hayes (Paramount Online Academy) is using feedback from Trine's site visit and beginning of year testing to improve instruction and student support, including beginning the after-school tutoring program. The school's biggest success to date is enrollment.

VI. Closing Items

A. Next Meeting
