II. Items for DiscussionA. Presentation by Colleen Meaney Director of the TRSTC

The Board of Trustees introduced themselves, and then C. Meaney presented about her work as the Director of the Teacher's Center. She introduced herself and explained her background in education. C. Meaney gave an overview of the work of the Teacher's Center, focusing on her priorities of "Listen, Learn, Act." She explained recent presentations through the Teacher's Center, including "Mastery-based Promotion and Essential Rites of Passage," at the NEASC Model Schools conference. Her ally development includes working with Center for Secondary School Reform (CSSR), New England Association of Secondary Schools (NEASC), Great Schools Partnerships (GSP) and the Massachusetts Charter School Association (MSCA). C. Meaney is working with Sara Bailey from the Astra Foundation to advocate for progressive education at the National level. Another area C. Meaney is actively working on is the grant secured from DESE to work with Ayer-Shirley Regional School District focusing on social-emotional learning through advisory. She explained all of the visitors who have already cycled through Parker so far this year. Trustees asked questions about goals and future work, and C. Meaney described wanting to cultivate relationships with other schools that lasted over time, helping teachers write about principles of progressive education in journals, and cultivating a sustainable business plan for the TC.

B. Principal's Report

T. Sumner described a recent visit to Parker by Representative Natalie Higgins (Leominster) and also his collaboration with C. Meaney with a group of students who are learning about public relations work. He described his ongoing work with the Massachusetts Charter School Association and advancement work with grant-writing. He gave an update on the roof, and J. LaPlatney and L. Warner spoke from the perspective of teachers and students in the building on a daily basis.
