III. Norms Reflection Activity

A. Norms Reflection Activity

Todd Sumner led the Board through the Board Norms Reflection Activity included in the meeting packet.

Todd asked the Board to reflect on Norms Before the Meeting and invited responses to discussion prompts:

- What routines have you developed in preparing for meetings?
- When have you experienced challenges in preparing for meetings?

Board members shared their thoughts.

Todd asked Board members to reflect on Norms During the Meeting and invited members form dyads to address the discussion prompts:

- Which norms are easiest for you as an individual
- Which norms you find to be a stretch
- Which norms you appreciate when others observe
- Which norms are important to the functioning of the Group

Board members shared from their conversations.

Todd asked the Board to reflect on Norms After the Meeting and invited responses to discussion prompts:

- When have you felt trusted to follow through on a task?
- Why is it important for the Board to speak with one voice?

Board members shared their thoughts.

IV. HOS Transition Updates

A. HOS Transition Updates

Brian Harrigan, incoming Head of School, presented his entry plan reflections. Brian said the theme of his reflection is "Opportunities for Growth".

Brian said that he is impressed by the spirit of generosity at Parker and he thanked Deb Merriam and the Parker staff fo welcoming and educating him. He said it is extraordinary to see Parker operating so true to its mission and to the vision of Ted Sizer.

Brian said he has seen authentic alignment to the the Ten Common Principles and shared ways he has seen the principles in action.

Brian said it has been harder to pull out areas of concern. He said some he has heard are:

- desire for more diversity
- some conflicts go unresolved
- funding for clubs and sports
- the Div 3 workload is intense

Brian said he is asking different constituencies and will continue to ask:

- What do you love about Parker?
- What would you like to improve?
- What stands in the way?
- What can I do to help you?

Brian invited questions.

Tiff Testa said it is nice to hear the perspective and feedback of what Brian has observed at Parker.

Matt Lindsey said that students are sharing with him how impressed they are with Brian.

V. Principal's Report

A. Principal's Report

Todd Sumner said the full Principal's Report is in the meeting packet.

Todd said he would circulate a poll to ask which Board members will be attending graduation and if members would like to sit with Board members or with their families.

Todd said the Trustees farewell celebration was a nice event and thanked those who took part.

Todd said that as the year wraps up, he will compile a list of ongoing projects and status of those projects.

Todd invited questions.

Katrina asked Todd to talk about the duct tape Todd to the wall fundraiser. Todd described the event.

Stefanie Reinhorn said she was disappointed Parker was not the vendor selected for the DEA Alternate Assessment Model competitive grant.

Christine Regan-Davi expressed appreciation for all those supporting the work of Parker and for strong leadership.
