II. Finance

A. FY22 Audit Presentation

Powers and Sullivan presenting findings of audit noting that given small shop (one person) internal controls can be difficult. This is the reason the school asks Powers and Sullivan for a mid year review as an additional check on controls especially on cash and related reconciliations. As part of the midyear review process the review looks at salaries on employment contracts to assure that people are paid according to contracts, examines journal entries for reasonableness, interim financial reports for quarter ends, and reconcile the payroll to the general ledger. Many of the same areas are covered during the year end audit that were covered during the midyear. The audit includes year end cut off testing and a budget to actual analysis. Nothing seemed out of place and the audit went smoothly. No reconciling items were found and no adjustments were made.

Michelle presented the reserve fund explanation.

Powers and Sullivan presented budget to actual results of operations for the year.

C. Soderman made a motion to Christina motioned to to accept the audit and recommend to the board as presented.

B. Muldoon seconded the motion.

The committee VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

B. Review of annual schedule and discussion of committee goals

Michelle explained that the board sets goals in January and is seeking input from the committees this fall so goals can be set this January.

Michelle presented the year end calendar with work that the committee is responsible for.

C. Introduction of the idea of retention bonuses from the FY22 Year

See item D below. Retention bonuses for people presently employed by Parker.

D. New Item : Salaries

Brian presented that we have a significant salary delta between Parker and sending districts. Brian presented concerns over the great resignation in the education field. He wants to create a task force to look at salaries. The idea will be presented more in detail
