B. Audit presentation

Audit Partner, Craig Peacock, present the FY24 audit report as attached. Craig presented all required communications including that the audit was independent. The audit found no unapproved transactions. The auditors had no difficulties with management, made no adjustments, and found all the support necessary. The general ledger was clean. The audit report presents an unmodified (clean) opinion with no weakness or deficiencies found.

C. Annual calendar

Michelle presented the annual calendar for review

D. Goal setting

Michelle presented a draft goal for fincom.

Draft goal

Support the implementation of the strategic plan and facilities upgrades by creating a model for investing and risk-taking including utilization of reserves to include reviewing and updating reserve policy as needed

Succession planning for chair position

Brian asked that the model include plans for when, under what condition and how much

E. Intro to Strategic Plan Funding

Michelle presented a preview about current reserve balances and policies. Brian previewed a potential ask in November to support the Strategic plan implementation related to development with potentially an additional ask in March depending on findings. Brian will return with more information in November.
