IV. Enrollment Committee update & discussion

A. Enrollment Committee update and discussion

Deb Merriam presented enrollment data from 2016 to present show applications up and withdrawals down.

We are still in post pandemic correction. After the class of '26 graduates there will be no students who started during the pandemic.

We are seeing older students withdrawing as a bigger percentage than 10 years ago.

Based on how we are accepting applications we have higher decline rate. A different applicant pool means more applications come from families who do not know the school.

V. Instructional goals and accountability metrics

A. Instructional goals

Bex Wilusz, Principal, presented the following Instructional Goals for the faculty this year...

1. How do we shape our diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) work so that it reflects our core values and sheds light on areas of growth? (aligns to Common Principles #3, 7, 10)
2. How do we shape and sustain a culture of decency and trust? (CP #7)
3. How do we coach (both support and challenge) students in ways that shape learning? (CP #5)

The board discussed the instructional goals, with members of the DEI Committee stressing the importance of cultural competency PD.

B. Accountability metrics

As a follow-up to the charter renewal, the board discussed accountability metrics and the question 'Are we the school we set out to be?' The board will vote on what Parker is to be measured against as outlined in the accountability plan and Parker's instructional leaders will communicate with DESE.

Key design elements for meeting accountability criteria:

1. Parker will remain an Essential School, guided by the Ten Common Principles of Essential Schools
2. Students will demonstrate mastery through public exhibitions of their work

3. Students will learn to use their minds well in a skills-based curriculum where they develop their individual potential through use of the revision process (feedback, self-correction) to meet high standards
4. Teachers will regularly engage in collective planning and develop individual reflective practice
